WRITING INSTITUTE.

THE first term of this College will con-mence on MONDAY, Feb. 15, in the large and spacious room in Cooper's block, on Cherry street, five doors above Deaderick. The course of instruction in this institution will embrace Book-Keeping, Commercial Law, Commercial Arithmetic Book-Keeping, Commercial Law, Commercial Arithmetic and Pennan-hip.

No pupil will receive a diploma until he is thoroughly qualified to discharge the duties of the accountant.

Students will be instructed in all the modern improved forms adopted by the best regulated houses in the country, among others one which dispenses with the use of the Journal, greatly lessening the amount of labor and liability to err, and another which renders the use of the Cash book and Journal smerthous; and enables the hook keeping.

and Journal superfluous, and enables the book-keeper to post his personal accounts daily, and his merchandise and cash as often as may suit his convenience. This latter form is more particularly designed for the use of retail establishments. of retail establishments.

They will be taught a simple process by which the merchant may at all times ascertain the amount of his loss or gain, together with the quantity of goods on hand, without resorting to the tedious process of taking an inventory.

This institution will be permanent, and has been established to meet the already important and growing commercial interests of the city of Nashville and State of Tennessee, and it is designed to place it upon a basis inferior to none in this country. to none in this country.

The importance, to every business man, of a knowledge of accounts, must be sufficiently obvious to all reflecting

To the man of wealth, it is important to enable him to manage his affairs scientifically, and without pecuniary loss and the Lawyer is often called upon, in the discharge of his professional duties, to unravel the most intricate accounts, but to the young man who depends upon his own resources for a livelihood, it is invaluable. It gives him a position which nothing else can. He holds the post of confidential clerk in his employers, the beneal of those who wish to take lessons in writing on-ly, where an elegant hand wroting will be imparted to all who place themselves under the care of the preceptor.

Pupils entering this institution are not limited to any number of lessons, but for a specified price may continue any branch they pursue until they are perfected, retaining the privilege of reviewing their lessons at any subsequent period, free of charge.

J. H. CURREY, CABINET MA-begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally that he has taken one of those large and commodious Store Rooms in Cooper's new buildings, on the corner of Cherry and Deaderick streets, where he will keep constantly on hand a full assortment of Furniture of all kinds.
